

Sachin is a dedicated Assistant Professor of Music with a strong academic background and a growing presence in the field of music education. He completed his schooling from Him Academy Public School, followed by his graduation from Government Degree College (GDC), Kullu. He went on to pursue his Master's in Music from the Music Department, Himachal Pradesh University, and is currently advancing his academic journey by pursuing a Ph.D. in Music. Sachin has qualified the National Eligibility Test (NET) and has also been awarded the Junior Research Fellowship (JRF), reflecting his exceptional academic calibre. With three years of teaching experience, he brings both scholarly depth and practical dedication to his role as an educator, making him a valuable contributor to the world of music academia.